Pastor would like to meet with all those on the Social Committee right after the service this morning for a brief discussion.

The TV mini series "The Bible" begins next Sunday at 7 PM on the History channel. Pastor Jim will be preaching from the Bible text each Sunday morning of March that will be featured in the film each evening.

You are encouraged to not only watch the film but invite others to join you. If you don't get the History channel and you would like to see the film series there will be a list of homes where you can go to join others to see the film.

If you have been thinking about getting baptized and or joining this church, it is not too late. Contact Pastor Jim.
