Membership Meeting after service

The music committee is seeking dedicated musicians to help lead worship. Must be willing to practice weekly and work well with others. There will be a meeting today after morning worship for those who want to know more.

There will be a brief membership meeting after the service next week to affirm several candidates for membership.

Next Sunday singer, song writer, Greg Hager will be with us for a mini concert during the service. We will take a love offering for Greg's ministry.
