We are hosting Life Line Screening again this year. The date for this year's screening is May 14. Registration forms are on the table in the foyer or you can register on line. All the information you need is on the forms in the foyer. If you have already signed up for the screening, you can see Pastor Jim for a coupon. For each person from our church who does the screening, Life Line will donate $10 to our church and take $10 off the cost of the screening.

Pastor Jim is planning a two week trip to Nigeria in January 2015 to visit our mission partners in the village of Mamukan. If you are interested in knowing more about the trip, please contact him.
