Making Our Service Count for the Lord

Numbers 3-4

Have you ever failed at a task and felt it would affect the course of the rest of your life? Failing a task does not define who you are, but it does make you take assessment of your relationship with Christ and what it means to serve Him, even in the practical areas of everyday life. This was so with an incident that Moses records in Numbers 3-4. Let's learn how we can make our service count for the Lord.

1. Realize that when we feel 'Useless,' the LORD does not view us that way. (3:1-12)
2. Know that the LORD has not changed His relationship with us. (3:11-13)
3. Understand that the LORD accepts us and reaffirms our ministry role & responsibility. (3:14-39)
4. Be Assured that the LORD compensates for genuine acts of service. (44-51)
5. Trust that the LORD clearly explains the sequence of the roles that He gives us. (Chapter 4)
