Passing on the Baton

Numbers 27

Life has many moments when we pass on our baton to another – at retirement, at graduation, when we change jobs, or when our children get married or move away from home. Moses was at that stage in his life and he accepted God's plan. He had no regrets, no bitterness, no fussing or bargaining with God to 'extend him a few more years of life.' NO! He simply accepted what God said and followed God's instructions. Let's see what we can learn from Moses, as we too will pass on the baton to another someday.

1. Listen & Live out what God says when faced with our last RESPONSIBILITIES. 1-11

2. Leave Graciously when informed of our REMOVAL. 12 - 14

3. Endorse God's Successor when faced with our REPLACEMENT. 15-23

Moses did as the LORD commanded him. He took Joshua and had him stand before Eleazar the priest and the whole assembly. Then he laid his hands on him and commissioned him, as the LORD instructed through
