Making the Grade

Philippians 2: 19-30

Ask any person what their biggest fear is and you'll probably get: 'not measuring up.' We are hardwired to long for "significance!" This is often tied to some type of performance. Paul saw this first-hand when he was at Philippi. So, he highlights two examples of Christians with godly character, namely Timothy and Epaphroditus. This then removes any doubt as to how one can "make the grade" as a believer and have a heart after God.

1. Is showing genuine care for others, (19-24).

2. Is having an obvious faithfulness on behalf of others, (25-30).
