A FATHER with No Regrets

Esther 2:5-23

Fathers are prone to wonder if they are making a positive impact on their wife and children. They may seem to be capable and confident on the outside, but often wrestle with deep insecurities of how they are doing relationally. This uncertainty leaves even the most 'confident man,' dreading the moment when he will be exposed for who he really is – or at least who he believes himself to be. So, what can a man do to be a father with no regrets?

1. He carries on God's values. (5-6)

BENEFIT: Others will 'reflect' his passion for God when it is evident in his life, even during difficult times!

2. He displays caring, interpersonal behaviors. (7-

BENEFIT: Others will hear his tone of voice and see that his life affirms that his passions are more than just

3. He consistently exemplifies his beliefs. (19-20)

BENEFIT: His entire life will send 'one' message that will be followed by others, even when he's not present.

4. He lives uprightly, not just for the honor. (21-23)

BENEFIT: He will "BE" what he believes, even when his efforts aren't rewarded!
