The Aftermath of Satan's Destruction

Re Transformed

-	Be Transformed	all the things that God has done for him to believer tobeliever never going back to their old self II. What does being transformed look like? (Romans 12) III. Why do we transform our life? A. So that we will live a life that is to God B. So that we will live a life that is to God B. So that we will live a life that is to God B. So that we will live a life that is to God B. So that we will live a life that is to God B. So that we will live a life that is to God B. So that we will live a life that is to God B. So that we will live a life that is to God B. So that we will live a life that is to God B. So that we will live a life that is to God B. So that we will live a life that is	I. What is a transformed believer? - They transform from unbeliever
II. Why does being transformed look like? (Romans 12) III. Why do we transform our life? A. So that we will live a life that is		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
III. Why do we transform our life? A. So that we will live a life that is to God B. So that we will live a life that is to God B. So that we will live a life that is to God B. So that we will live a life that is to God B. So that we will live a life that is to God B. So that we will live a life that is to God B. So that we will live a life that is to God B. So that we will live a life that is to God B. So that we will live a life that is to God B. So that we will live a life that is to God B. So that we will live a life that is to God B. So that we will live a life that is to God B. So that we will live a life that is to God B. So that we will live a life that is to God B. So that we will live a life that is to God B. So that we will live a life that is
III. Why do we transform our life? A. So that we will live a life that is to God B. So that we will live a life that is to God B. So that we will live a life that is to God B. So that we will live a life that is to God B. So that we will live a life that is to God B. So that we will live a life that is to God B. So that we will live a life that is to God B. So that we will live a life that is to God B. So that we will live a life that is to God B. So that we will live a life that is to God B. So that we will live a life that is to God B. So that we will live a life that is to God B. So that we will live a life that is to God B. So that we will live a life that is to God B. So that we will live a life that is to God B. So that we will live a life that is	II. What does being transformed look like? (Romans 12)	A. Satan's Hypothesis – Job worships God because God blessed
A. So that we will live a life that is
B. So that we will be able to see Gen 1-11 I. Creation II. First Sin III. Wickedness grows IV. Flood — God starts over with Noah's family V. Tower of Babel — One race, different cultures Job II. Job's life from the beginning A. Job's swalth (vs. 2, 4) C. Job's character (vs. 3b) D. Job's relationship with God (vs. 1b, 5) 1. He was blameless — "without or "whole" 2. He was upright — "straight" in the sense that he did not deviate from God's 3. He feared God — He was aware of God, 4. He shunned evil — did everything in his power to reject anything that is the opposite of God's 5. Job offered burnt offering on behalf of his children in case they have sinned or cursed God in their hearts III. Job's Hedges of A. Hedge 1 — Wealth B. Hedge 2 — Family C. Job's response (vs. 1:20-22) V. Round Two A. Satan's Hypothesis — Job worships God because You blessed him with B. Satan could do what he wanted to Job but not kill him C. Job's response to the sorcs (vs. 2:8-10) VI. Job showed that God is of our worship and obedience no matter the circumstances Job's Comforters I. Job's friends agree meet and go to Job to provide (Job 2:11) II. Job's friends are (Job 2:11) III. The response of the friends (Job 2:12b-13) A. They began to mourn as if Job was already dead (Job 2:12b) B. They sat in silence (four reasons) BKC 1. It was an act of sympathy and Job's deathlike condition 2. It was an act of sympathy and Job looked 4. It was custom to let the grieving person first How has God's Word you in the past year? II. Job's Hedge 2 — Family II. Job you worship God no matter what you in the you are facing?	•
Creation Creation
II. Creation II. First Sin III. Wickedness grows IV. Flood – God starts over with Noah's family V. Tower of Babel – One race, different cultures Job		1 '
him with B. Satan could do what he wanted to Job but not kill him C. Job's response to the sores (vs. 2:8-10)		A. Satan's Hypothesis – Job worships God because You blessed
III. Wickedness grows IV. Flood – God starts over with Noah's family V. Tower of Babel – One race, different cultures Job II. Job's life from the beginning A. Job's wealth (vs. 3a) B. Job's character (vs. 3b) D. Job's character (vs. 3b) D. Job's relationship with God (vs. 1b, 5) 1. He was blameless – "without whole" 2. He was upright – "straight" in the sense that he did not deviate from God's
IV. Flood – God starts over with Noah's family V. Tower of Babel – One race, different cultures Job II. Background information on Job III. Job's life from the beginning A. Job's wealth (vs. 3a) B. Job's Character (vs. 3b) D. Job's relationship with God (vs. 1b, 5) 1. He was blameless – "without blemish" or " whole" 2. He was upright – "straight" in the sense that he did not deviate from God's 3. He feared God – He was aware of God, and submitted to God 4. He shunned evil – did everything in his power to reject anything that is the opposite of God's 5. Job offered burnt offering on behalf of his children in case they have sinned or cursed God in their hearts III. Job's Heedges of 4. Hedge 1 – Wealth B. Hedge 2 – Family VI. Job showed that God is of our worship and obedience no matter the circumstances Job's Comforters I. Job's friends agree meet and go to Job to provide (Job 2:12b) III. Job's friends are by Job's appearance (Job 2:12a) III. The response of the friends (Job 2:12b-13) A. They began to mourn as if Job was already dead (Job 2:12b) B. They sat in silence (four reasons) BKC 1. It was an act of sympathy and 3. It was a reaction to how Job looked 5. Job offered burnt offering on behalf of his children in case they have sinned or cursed God in their hearts III. Job's Hedges of 1. How has God's Word you in the past year? II. How has God's Word you in the past year? II. Do you worship God no matter what you are facing?		B. Satan could do what he wanted to Job but not kill him
V. Tower of Babel – One race, different cultures Job I. Background information on Job II. Job's life from the beginning A. Job's wealth (vs. 3a) B. Job's Character (vs. 3b) D. Job's Character (vs. 3b) D. Job's relationship with God (vs. 1b, 5) 1. He was blameless – "without blemish" or " whole" 2. He was upright – "straight" in the sense that he did not deviate from God's God, and submitted to God 4. He shunned evil – did everything in his power to reject anything that is the opposite of God's S. Job offered burnt offering on behalf of his children in case they have sinned or cursed God in their hearts III. Job's Hedges of Redge 1 – Wealth B. Hedge 2 – Family VI. Job showed that God is of our worship and obedience no matter the circumstances VI. Job showed that God is of our worship and obedience no matter the circumstances Job's Comforters I. Job's friends agree meet and go to Job to provide (Job 2:12b) III. Job's friends are by Job's appearance (Job 2:12a) A. They began to mourn as if Job was already dead (Job 2:12b) B. They sat in silence (four reasons) BKC 1. It was a way of Job's deathlike condition 2. It was an act of sympathy and 3. It was a reaction to how Job looked 4. It was custom to let the grieving person first III. Job's Hedges of Nate of the past year? II. How has God's Word you in the past year? II. Do you worship God no matter what you are facing?		C. Job's response to the sores (vs. 2:8-10)
Job I. Background information on Job II. Job's life from the beginning A. Job's wealth (vs. 3a) B. Job's family (vs. 2, 4) C. Job's Character (vs. 3b) D. Job's relationship with God (vs. 1b, 5) 1. He was blameless - "without blemish" or " whole" 2. He was upright - "straight" in the sense that he did not deviate from God's 3. He feared God - He was aware of God, 4. He shunned evil - did everything in his power to reject anything that is the opposite of God's first III. Job's Hedges of have sinned or cursed God in their hearts III. Job's Griends agree meet and go to Job to provide (Job 2:12b) III. Job's friends are by Job's appearance (Job 2:12a) III. Job's friends are by Job's appearance (Job 2:12b) III. Job's friends are by Job's appearance (Job 2:12b) III. Job's friends are by Job's appearance (Job 2:12b) III. The response of the friends (Job 2:12b-13) A. They began to mourn as if Job was already dead (Job 2:12b) B. They sat in silence (four reasons) BKC 1. It was a way of Job's deathlike condition 2. It was an act of sympathy and 3. It was a reaction to how Job looked 4. It was custom to let the grieving person first Questions to Ponder I. How has God's Word you in the past year? II. How has God's Word you in the past year? II. Do you worship God no matter what you are facing?
I. Background information on Job II. Job's life from the beginning A. Job's wealth (vs. 3a) B. Job's family (vs. 2, 4) C. Job's Character (vs. 3b) D. Job's relationship with God (vs. 1b, 5) 1. He was blameless – "without blemish" or " whole" 2. He was upright – "straight" in the sense that he did not deviate from God's God, and submitted to God 4. He shunned evil – did everything in his power to reject anything that is the opposite of God's	V. Tower of Babel – One race, different cultures	and obedience no matter the circumstances
II. Job's life from the beginning A. Job's wealth (vs. 3a) B. Job's family (vs. 2, 4) C. Job's Character (vs. 3b) D. Job's relationship with God (vs. 1b, 5) 1. He was blameless - "without blemish" or " whole" 2. He was upright - "straight" in the sense that he did not deviate from God's 3. He feared God - He was aware of God,	Job
II. Job's life from the beginning A. Job's wealth (vs. 3a) B. Job's family (vs. 2, 4) C. Job's Character (vs. 3b) D. Job's relationship with God (vs. 1b, 5) 1. He was blameless - "without blemish" or " whole" 2. He was upright - "straight" in the sense that he did not deviate from God's 3. He feared God - He was aware of God,	I. Background information on Job	Job's Comforters
A. Job's wealth (vs. 3a) B. Job's family (vs. 2, 4) C. Job's Character (vs. 3b) D. Job's relationship with God (vs. 1b, 5) 1. He was blameless – "without blemish" or " whole" 2. He was upright – "straight" in the sense that he did not deviate from God's God, and submitted to God 4. He shunned evil – did everything in his power to reject anything that is the opposite of God's bave sinned or cursed God in their hearts III. Job's Hedges of have sinned or cursed God in their hearts B. Hedge 2 – Family III. Job's friends are by Job's appearance (Job 2:12a) III. The response of the friends (Job 2:12b-13) A. They began to mourn as if Job was already dead (Job 2:12b) B. They sat in silence (four reasons) BKC 1. It was a way of Job's deathlike condition 2. It was an act of sympathy and 3. It was a reaction to how Job looked 4. It was custom to let the grieving person 4. How has God's Word you in the past year? II. How has God's Word you in the past year? III. Do you worship God no matter what you are facing?	•	I. Job's friends agree meet and go to Job to provide
B. Job's family (vs. 2, 4) C. Job's Character (vs. 3b) D. Job's relationship with God (vs. 1b, 5) 1. He was blameless – "without whole" 2. He was upright – "straight" in the sense that he did not deviate from God's
C. Job's Character (vs. 3b) D. Job's relationship with God (vs. 1b, 5) 1. He was blameless – "without blemish" or " whole" 2. He was upright – "straight" in the sense that he did not deviate from God's God, and submitted to God 4. He shunned evil – did everything in his power to reject anything that is the opposite of God's first 5. Job offered burnt offering on behalf of his children in case they have sinned or cursed God in their hearts III. The response of the friends (Job 2:12b-13) A. They began to mourn as if Job was already dead (Job 2:12b) B. They sat in silence (four reasons) BKC 1. It was a way of Job's deathlike condition 2. It was a reaction to how Job looked 4. It was custom to let the grieving person 4. He shunned evil – did everything in his power to reject anything that is the opposite of God's first Questions to Ponder I. How has God's Word you in the past year? II. Do you worship God no matter what you are facing?	B. Job's family (vs. 2, 4)	II. Job's friends are by Job's appearance (Job 2:12a)
1. He was blameless – "without blemish" or " whole" 2. He was upright – "straight" in the sense that he did not deviate from God's 3. He feared God – He was aware of God, God, and submitted to God 4. He shunned evil – did everything in his power to reject anything that is the opposite of God's first 5. Job offered burnt offering on behalf of his children in case they have sinned or cursed God in their hearts III. Job's Hedges of A. Hedge 1 – Wealth B. Hedge 2 – Family B. They sat in silence (four reasons) BKC 1. It was a way of Job's deathlike condition 2. It was an act of sympathy and Job looked 4. It was custom to let the grieving person 4. How has God's Word you in the past year? II. How has God's Word you in the you are facing?	C. Job's Character (vs. 3b)	III. The response of the friends (Job 2:12b-13)
2. He was upright – "straight" in the sense that he did not deviate from God's	D. Job's relationship with God (vs. 1b, 5)	A. They began to mourn as if Job was already dead (Job 2:12b)
2. He was upright – "straight" in the sense that he did not deviate from God's
2. He was upright – "straight" in the sense that he did not deviate from God's	or "whole" deviate from God's	2. He was upright – "straight" in the sense that he did not
3. He feared God – He was aware of God, God, and submitted to God 4. He shunned evil – did everything in his power to reject anything that is the opposite of God's 5. Job offered burnt offering on behalf of his children in case they have sinned or cursed God in their hearts H. Hedges of you in the past year? A. Hedge 1 – Wealth B. Hedge 2 – Family Job looked 4. It was custom to let the grieving person Questions to Ponder I. How has God's Word you in the past year? II. Do you worship God no matter what you are facing?		2. It was an act of sympathy and
God, and submitted to God 4. He shunned evil – did everything in his power to reject anything that is the opposite of God's 5. Job offered burnt offering on behalf of his children in case they have sinned or cursed God in their hearts HI. Job's Hedges of A. Hedge 1 – Wealth B. Hedge 2 – Family 4. It was custom to let the grieving person first Questions to Ponder I. How has God's Word you in the past year? II. Do you worship God no matter what you are facing?	3. He feared God – He was aware of God,	3. It was a reaction to how Job looked anything that is the opposite of God's
5. Job offered burnt offering on behalf of his children in case they have sinned or cursed God in their hearts III. Job's Hedges of You in the A. Hedge 1 – Wealth B. Hedge 2 – Family II. How has God's Word you in the past year? II. Do you worship God no matter what you are facing?	4. He shunned evil – did everything in his power to reject	first
5. Job offered burnt offering on behalf of his children in case they have sinned or cursed God in their hearts III. Job's Hedges of You in the A. Hedge 1 – Wealth B. Hedge 2 – Family II. How has God's Word you in the past year? II. Do you worship God no matter what you are facing?	anything that is the opposite of God's
III. Job's Hedges of past year? A. Hedge 1 – Wealth II. Do you worship God no matter what you are facing?		Questions to Ponder
III. Job's Hedges of past year? A. Hedge 1 – Wealth II. Do you worship God no matter what you are facing?	they have sinned or cursed God in their hearts
A. Hedge 1 – Wealth B. Hedge 2 – Family II. Do you worship God no matter what you are facing?	III. Job's Hedges of
B. Hedge 2 – Family you are facing?	A. Hedge 1 – Wealth	- ·
C. Hedge 3 – His Reputation D. Hedge 4 – Health III. Who do you know that needs your? IV. Do you understand the importance of?	B. Hedge 2 – Family	you are facing?
D. Hedge 4 – Health IV. Do you understand the importance of?	C. Hedge 3 – His Reputation	III. Who do you know that needs your?
		IV. Do you understand the importance of?

E. Hedge 5 – Wife

F. Satan's argument was the Job's righteousness is accredited to